Information Sheet for Prospective Members

Welcome!

The Greater New Haven Community Chorus (GNHCC) was founded in 1963 and performs two concerts per year. The chorus provides an opportunity to express your love of music in a warm and friendly community environment. Many of us have formed close and lasting friendships with people whom we met through GNHCC.

Rehearsals

Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings, from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. at 311 Temple Street, Center Church Parish House, in New Haven behind the New Haven Public Library.

Concerts

We prepare two concerts each year, our Winter Concert in December and our Spring Concert in late May or early June.

Prospective Members

GNHCC is a non-auditioned choir open to both men and women of all ages and singing abilities. Before joining, prospective members are asked to attend two rehearsals as guests to see if they like the choir, conductor and music. Guests may then join upon attending their third rehearsal.

Fees

Membership fees are $40.00 (forty dollars) for each concert season (there are two concert seasons per year). Membership fees help to defray the cost of rehearsal hall rental, music, accompanist and director salaries and so on.

Visit Our Website

Please visit our website at www.gnhcc.org and listen to samples of our music from previous concerts. You can also find out more about our director, our music and our events.
